The operation and development of the internal market for agricultural products must be accompanied by the establishment of a common agricultural policy. Article 33 TEC) 1. The objectives of the common agricultural policy shall be: (a) to increase agricultural productivity by promoting technical progress and by ensuring the rational development of agricultural production and the optimum utilisation of the factors of production, in particular by increasing the individual earnings of persons engaged in agriculture; (c) to stabilise markets; (d) to assure the availability of supplies; (e) to ensure that supplies reach consumers at reasonable prices. 2. In working out the common agricultural policy and the special methods for its application, account shall be taken of: (a) the particular nature of agricultural policy and the special methods for its application, account shall be taken of: appropriate adjustments by degrees; (c) the fact that in the Member States agriculture constitutes a sector closely linked with the economy as a whole. Article 39, a common organisation of agricultural markets shall be established. This organisation shall take one of the following forms, depending on the product concerned: (a) common rules on competition; (b) compulsory coordination of the various national market organisations; (c) a European market organisation. 2. The common organisation established in accordance with paragraph 1 may include all measures required to attain the objectives set out in Article 39, in particular regulation of prices, aids for the production and marketing of the various products, storage and carryover arrangements and common machinery for stabilising imports or exports. The common organisation shall exclude any discrimination between producers or consumers within the Union. Any common price policy shall be based on common criteria and uniform methods of calculation. 3. In order to enable the common organisation referred to in paragraph 1 to attain its objectives, one or more agricultural guidance and guarantee funds may be set up. Article 35 TEC) To enable the objectives set out in Article 39 to be attained, provision may be made within the framework of the common agricultural policy for measures such as: (a) an effective coordination of efforts in the spheres of vocational training, of research and of the dissemination of agricultural knowledge; this may include joint financing of projects or institutions; (b) joint measures to promote consumption of certain production of and trade in agricultural products only to the extent determined by the European Parliament and the Council within the framework of Article 39. The Council, on a proposal from the Commission, may authorise the granting of aid: (a) for the protection of enterprises handicapped by structural or natural conditions; (b) within the framework of economic development programmes. Article 43 (ex Article 43 (ex Article 37 TEC) 1. The Commission shall submit proposals for working out and implementing the common agricultural policy, including the replacement of the national organisations by one of the forms of common agricultural policy, including the replacement of the national organisations by one of the forms of common organisation provided for in Article 40(1), and for implementing the measures specified in this Title. These proposals shall take account of the interdependence of the agricultural matters mentioned in this Title. 2. The European Parliament and the Council, acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure and after consulting the Economic and Social Committee, shall establish the common organisation of agricultural markets provided for in Article 40(1) and the other provisions necessary for the pursuit of the objectives of the common agricultural policy. 3. The Council, on a proposal from the Commission, shall adopt measures on fixing prices, levies, aid and quantitative limitations and on the fixing and allocation of fishing opportunities. 4. In accordance with paragraph 2, the national market organisation smay be replaced by the common organisation provided for in Article 40(1) if:
(a) the common organisation of their own for the production in guestion equivalent safeguards for the employment and standard of living of the producers concerned, account being taken of the adjustments that will be possible and the specialisation that will be needed with the passage of time; (b) such an organisation ensures conditions for trade within the Union similar to those existing in a national market. 5. If a common organisation for certain raw materials is established before a common organisation exists for the corresponding processed products, such raw materials as are used for processed products intended for export to third countries may be imported from outside the Union. Article 38 TEC) Where in a Member State a product is subject to a national market organisation or to internal rules having equivalent effect which affect the competitive position of similar production in another Member State, a countervailing charge shall be applied by Member States to imports of this product coming from the Member State where such organisation or rules exist, unless that State applies a countervailing charge on export. The Commission shall fix the amount of these charges at the level required to redress the balance; it may also authorise other measures, the conditions and details of which it shall determine. TITLE IV FREE MOVEMENT OF PERSONS, SERVICES AND CAPITAL CHAPTER 1 WORKERS Article 45 (ex Article 39 TEC) 1. Freedom of movement for workers shall be secured within the Union. 2. Such freedom of movement shall entail the abolition of any discrimination based on nationality between workers of the Member States as regards employment, remuneration and other conditions of work and employment. 3. It shall entail the right, subject to limitations justified on grounds of public policy, public security or public health: (a) to accept offers of employment actually made; (b) to move freely within the territory of Member States for this purpose; (c) to stay in a Member State for the purpose of employment in accordance with the provisions governing the employment of nationals of that State laid down by law, regulation or administrative action; (d) to remain in the territory of a Member State after having been employed in that State, subject to conditions which shall be embodied in regulations to be drawn up by the Commission. 4. The provisions of this Article shall not apply to employment in the public service. Article 46 (ex Article 40 TEC) The European Parliament and the Council shall, acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure and after consulting the Economic and Social Committee, issue directives or make regulations setting out the measures required to bring about freedom of movement for workers, as defined in Article 45, in particular: (a) by ensuring close cooperation between national employment services; (b) by abolishing those administrative procedures and practices and those qualifying periods in respect of eligibility for available employment, whether resulting from national legislation or from agreements previously concluded between Member States, the maintenance of which would form an obstacle to liberalisation of the movement of workers; (c) by abolishing all such qualifying periods and other restrictions provided for either under national legislation or under agreements previously concluded between Member States as imposed on workers; workers of the State concerned; (d) by setting up appropriate machinery to bring offers of employment into touch with applications for employment market in such a way as to avoid serious threats to the standard of living and level of employment in the various regions and industries. Article 47 (ex Article 41 TEC) Member States shall, within the framework of a joint programme, encourage the exchange of young workers. Article 48 (ex Article 42 TEC) The European Parliament and the Council shall, acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure, adopt such measures in the field of social security as are necessary to provide freedom of movemen for workers; to this end, they shall make arrangements to secure for employed and self-employed migrant workers and their dependants: (a) aggregation, for the purpose of acquiring the right to benefit and of calculating the amount of benefit, of all periods taken into account under the laws of the several countries; (b) payment of benefits to persons resident in the territories of Member States. Where a member of the Council declares that a draft legislative act referred to in the first subparagraph would affect the financial balance of that system, it may request that the matter be referred to the European Council. In that case, the ordinary legislative procedure shall be suspension, either discussion, the European Council shall, within four months of this suspension of the ordinary legislative procedure; or (b) take no action or request the Commission to submit a new proposal; in that case, the act originally proposed shall be deemed not to have been adopted. Freedom of establishment shall include the right to take up and pursue activities as self-employed persons and to set up and manage undertakings, in particular companies or firms within the meaning of the second paragraph of Article 54, under the conditions laid down for its own nationals by the law of the country where such establishment is effected, subject to the provisions of the Chapter relating to capital. Article 50 (ex Article 44 TEC) 1. In order to attain freedom of establishment as regards a particular activity, the European Parliament and the Council, acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure and after consulting the Economic and Social Committee, shall act by means of directives. 2. The European Parliament, the Council and the Commission shall carry out the duties devolving upon them under the preceding provisions, in particular: (a) by according, as a general rule, priority treatment to activities where freedom of establishment makes a particularly valuable contribution to the development of production and trade; (b) by ensuring close cooperation between the competent authorities in order to ascertain the particular situation within the Union of the various activities concerned; (c) by abolishing those administrative procedures and practices, whether resulting from national legislation or from agreements previously concluded between Member States, the maintenance of which would form an obstacle to freedom of establishment; (d) by ensuring that workers of one Member State employed persons, where they satisfy the conditions which they would be required to satisfy if they were entering that State at the time when they intended to take up such activities; (e) by enabling a national of one Member State to acquire and use land and buildings situated in the territory of another Member State, in so far as this does not conflict with the principles laid down in Article 39(2); (f) by effecting the progressive abolition of restrictions on freedom of establishment in every branch of activity under consideration, both as regards the conditions for setting up agencies, branches or subsidiaries in the territory of a Member State and as regards the conditions governing the entry of personnel belonging to the main establishment into managerial or supervisory posts in such agencies, branches or subsidiaries; (g) by coordinating to the necessary extent the safeguards which, for the protection of the interests of members and others, are required by Member States of companies or firms within the meaning of the second paragraph of Article 54 with a view to making such safeguards equivalent throughout the Union; (h) by satisfying themselves that the conditions of establishment are not distorted by aids granted by Member States. Article 51 (ex Article 45 TEC) The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply, so far as any given Member State is concerned, to activities which in that State are connected, even occasionally, with the exercise of official authority. The European Parliament and the Council, acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure, may rule that the provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to certain activities. Article 46 TEC) 1. The provisions laid down by law, regulation or administrative action providing for special treatment for foreign nationals on grounds of public policy, public security or public health. 2. The European Parliament and the Council shall, acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure, issue directives for the coordination of the abovementioned provisions. Article 47 TEC) 1. In order to make it easier for persons to take up and pursue activities as self-employed persons, the European Parliament and the Council shall, acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure, issue directives for the mutual recognition of diplomas, certificates and other evidence of formal qualifications and for the coordination of the provisions laid down by law, regulation or administrative action in Member States concerning the taking-up and pursuit of activities as self-employed persons. 2. In the case of the medical and allied and pharmaceutical professions, the progressive abolition of restrictions shall be dependent upon coordination of the conditions for their exercise in the various Member States. Article 48 TEC) Companies or firms formed in accordance with the law of a Member State and having their registered office, central administration or principal place of business within the Union shall, for the purposes of this Chapter, be treated in the same way as natural persons who are nationals of Member States. "Companies or firms" means companies or firms constituted under civil or commercial law, including cooperative societies, and other legal persons governed by public or private law, save for those which are nonprofit-making. Article 55 (ex Article 294 TEC) Member States shall accord nationals of the other Member States the same treatment as their own nationals as regards participation in the capital of companies or firms within the meaning of Article 49 TEC) Within the framework of the provisions set out below, restrictions on freedom to provide services within the Union shall be prohibited in respect of nationals of Member States who are established in a Member State other than that of the person for whom the services are intended. The European Parliament and the Council, acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure, may extend the provisions of the Chapter to nationals of a third country who provide services and who are established within the meaning of the Treaties where they are normally provided for remuneration, in so far as they are not governed by the provisions relating to freedom of movement for goods, capital and persons. "Services" shall in particular include: (a) activities of an industrial character; (b) activities of the professions. Without prejudice to the provisions of the Chapter relating to the right of establishment, the person providing a service may, in order to do so, temporarily pursue his activity in the Member State where the service is provided, under the same conditions as are imposed by that State on its own nationals. Article 51 TEC) 1. Freedom to provide services in the field of transport shall be governed by the provisions of the Title relating to transport. 2. The liberalisation of banking and insurance services connected with movements of capital shall be effected in step with the liberalisation of a specific service, the European Parliament and the Council, acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure and after consulting the Economic and Social Committee, shall issue directives. 2. As regards the directives referred to in paragraph 1, priority shall as a general rule be given to those services which directly affect production costs or the liberalisation of services beyond the extent required by the directives issued pursuant to Article 59(1), if their general economic situation and the situation of the economic sector concerned so permit. To this end, the Commission shall make recommendations to the Member States concerned. Article 54 TEC) As long as restrictions on freedom to provide services have not been abolished, each Member State shall apply such restrictions without distinction on grounds of nationality or residence to all persons providing services within the meaning of the first paragraph of Article 56. Article 56 TEC) The provisions of Articles 51 to 54 shall apply to the matters covered by this Chapter. CHAPTER 4 CAPITAL AND PAYMENTS Article 63 (ex Article 56 TEC) 1. Within the framework of the provisions set out in this Chapter. all restrictions on the movement of capital between Member States and between Member States and third countries shall be prohibited. 2. Within the framework of the provisions set out in this Chapter, all restrictions on payments between Member States and third countries shall be without prejudice to the application to third countries of any restrictions which exist on 31 December 1993 under national or Union law adopted in respect of the movement of capital to or from third countries involving direct investment – including in real estate – establishment, the provision of financial services or the admission of securities to capital markets. In respect of restrictions existing under national law in Bulgaria, Estonia and Hungary, the relevant date shall be 31 December 1999. 2. Whilst endeavouring to achieve the objective of free movement of capital between Member States and third countries to the greatest extent possible and without prejudice to the other Chapters of the Treaties, the European Parliament and the Council, acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure, shall adopt the measures on the movement of capital to or from third countries involving direct investment – including investment in real estate – establishment, the provision of financial services or the admission of securities to capital markets. 3. Notwithstanding paragraph 2, only the Council, acting in accordance with a special legislative procedure, may unanimously, and after consulting the European Parliament, adopt measures which constitute a step backwards in Union law as regards the liberalisation of the movement of capital to or from third countries. Article 65 (ex Article 58 TEC) 1. The provisions of Article 63 shall be without prejudice to the right of Member States: (a) to apply the relevant provisions of their tax law which distinguish between taxpavers who are not in the same situation with regard to their place of residence or with regard to their place of residence or with regard to their place of residence or with regard to the place where their capital is invested; (b) to take all regulations, in particular in the field of taxation and the prudential supervision of financial institutions, or to lay down procedures for the declaration of capital movements for purposes of administrative or statistical information, or to take measures which are justified on grounds of public policy or public security. 2. The provisions of this Chapter shall be without prejudice to the applicability of restrictions on the right of establishment which are compatible with the Treaties. 3. The measures and procedures referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not constitute a means of arbitrary discrimination or a disguised restriction on the free movement of capital and payments as defined in Article 63. 4. In the absence of measures pursuant to Article 64(3), the Commission or, in the absence of a Commission decision within three months from the request of the Member State concerned, the Council, may adopt a decision stating that restrictive tax measures adopted by a Member State concerning one or more third countries are to be considered compatible with the Treaties in so far as they are justified by one of the objectives of the Union and compatible with the proper functioning of the internal market. The Council shall act unanimously on application by a Member State. Article 66 (ex Article 59 TEC) Where, in exceptional circumstances, movements of capital to or from third countries cause, or threaten to cause, serious difficulties for the operation of economic and monetary union, the Council, on a proposal from the Commission and after consulting the European Central Bank, may take safeguard measures with regard to third countries for a period not exceeding six months if such measures are strictly necessary. TITLE V AREA OF FREEDOM, SECURITY AND JUSTICE CHAPTER 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS Article 67 (ex Article 61 TEC and ex Article 29 TEU) 1. The Union shall constitute an area of freedom, security and justice with respect for fundamental rights and the different legal systems and traditions of the Member States. 2. It shall ensure the absence of internal border control, based on solidarity between Member States, which is fair towards third-country nationals. 3. The Union shall endeavour to ensure a high level of security through measures to prevent and combat crime, racism and xenophobia, and through measures for coordination and cooperation between police and judicial authorities and other competent authorities and other competent authorities and through the mutual recognition of judgments in criminal matters and, if necessary, through the approximation of criminal laws. 4. Declaration on Article 55(2) of the Treaty on European Union The Conference considers that the possibility of producing translations of the Treaties in the languages mentioned in Article 55(2) contributes to fulfilling the objective of respecting the Union's rich cultural and linguistic diversity as set forth in the fourth subparagraph of Article 3(3). In this context, the Conference confirms the attachment of the Union to the cultural diversity of Europe and the special attention it will continue to pay to these and other languages. The Conference recommends that those Member States wishing to avail themselves of the possibility recognised in Article 55(2) communicate to the Council, within six months from the date of the signature of the Treaty of Lisbon, the language or languages into which translations of the Treaty of Lisbon, the language or language or language or languages into which translations of the Treaty of Lisbon, the language or language or language or language or languages into which translations of the Treaty of Lisbon, the language or language or language or languages into which translations of the Treaty of Lisbon, the language or language or language or language or languages into which translations of the Treaty of Lisbon, the language or language or language or languages into which translations of the Treaty of Lisbon, the language or language or language or languages into which translations of the Treaty of Lisbon, the language or language or language or language or languages into which translations of the Treaty of Lisbon, the language or language that, in accordance with well settled case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union, the Treaties and the law adopted by the Union on the basis of the Treaties have primacy over the law of Member States, under the council Legal Service on the primacy of EC law as set out in 11197/07 (JUR 260): "Opinion of the Council Legal Service of 22 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 22 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service of 24 June 2007 It results from the case-law of the Council Legal Service Service Service Service S established case law (Costa/ENEL, 15 July 1964, Case 6/641 [1]) there was no mention of primacy in the treaty. It is still the case today. The fact that the principle of the existence of the principle and the existence of the principle of primacy will not be included in the future treaty shall not in any way change the existence of the principle and the existence of the principle and the existence of the principle and the existence of the principle of primacy will not be included in the future treaty. It is still the case today. The Conference underlines that, in accordance with the system of division of competences between the Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, competences not conferred upon the Union and the Treaty on the Union and the Treaty on the Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, competences not conferred upon the Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on the Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on the Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on the Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on the Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union and the Member States as provided for in the Treaty on European Union as provided for in the Treaty on European Union as provided for in the Treaty on European Uni competence shared with the Member States in a specific area, the Member States shall exercise their competence to the extent that the Union has not exercised, or has decided to cease exercising, its competence. The latter situation arises when the relevant EU institutions decide to repeal a legislative act, in particular better to ensure constant respect for the principles of subsidiarity and proportionality. The Council may, at the initiative of one or several of its members (representatives of Member States) and in accordance with Article 241 of the European Union, request the Commission to submit proposals for repealing a legislative act. The Conference welcomes the Commission's declaration that it will devote particular attention to these requests. Equally, the representatives of the governments of the Member States, meeting in an Intergovernmental Conference, in accordance with the ordinary revision procedure provided for in Article 48(2) to (5) of the Treaty on European Union, may decide to amend the Treaties upon which the Union is founded, including either to increase or to reduce the competences conferred on the Union in the said Treaties. 19. Declaration on Article 8 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Conference agrees that, in its general efforts to eliminate inequalities between women and men, the Union will aim in its different policies to combat all kinds of domestic violence. The Member States should take all necessary measures to prevent and punish these criminal acts and to support and protect the victims. 20. Declaration on Article 16 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Conference declares that, whenever rules on protection of personal data to be adopted on the basis of Article 16 could have direct implications for national security, due account will have to be taken of the specific characteristics of the matter. It recalls that the legislation presently applicable (see in particular Direction of personal data in the fields of judicial cooperation in criminal matters and police cooperation. The Conference acknowledges that specific rules on the protection of personal data and the free movement of such data in the fields of judicial cooperation in criminal matters and police cooperation based on Article 16 of the Specific nature of these fields. 22. Declaration on Articles 48 and 79 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Conference considers that in the event that a draft legislative act based on Article 79(2) would affect the financial balance of that system as set out in the second paragraph of Article 48, the interests of that Member State will be duly taken into account. 23. Declaration on the second paragraph of Article 48 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, the European Union, the European Council acts by consensus. 24. Declaration concerning the legal personality of the European Union The Conference confirms that the fact that the European Union has a legal personality will not in any way authorise the Union to legislate or to act beyond the competences conferred upon it by the Member States in the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Conference recalls that the respect for fundamental rights and freedoms implies, in particular, that proper attention is given to the protection and observance of the due process rights of the individuals or entities concerned. For this purpose and in order to guarantee a thorough judicial review of decisions subjecting an individual or entity to restrictive measures, such decisions must be based on clear and distinct criteria. These criteria should be tailored to the specifics of each restrictive measure. 26. Declaration on non-participation by a Member State in a measure based on Title V of Part Three of the European Union, the Council will hold a full discussion on the possible implications and effects of that Member State is non-participation in the measure. In addition, any Member State may ask the Commission to examine the situation on the basis of Article 116 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. The above paragraphs are without prejudice to the entitlement of a Member State to refer the matter to the European Council. 27. Declaration on Article 85(1), second subparagraph, of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Conference considers that the regulations referred to in the second subparagraph of Article 85(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union Should take into account national rules and practices relating to the initiation of criminal investigations. 28. Declaration on Article 98 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Conference notes that the provisions of Article 98 shall be applied in accordance with the current practice. The terms "such measures are required in order to compensate for the economic disadvantages caused by the division of Germany to the economy of certain areas of the Federal Republic affected by that division" shall be interpreted in accordance with the existing case law of the European Union. 29. Declaration on Article 107(2)(c) shall be interpreted in accordance with the existing case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union regarding the applicability of the provisions to aid granted to certain areas of the Federal Republic of Germany. 30. Declaration on Article 126, the Conference confirms that raising growth potential and securing sound budgetary positions are the two pillars of the economic and fiscal policy of the Union and the Member States. The Stability and Growth Pact is an important tool to achieve these goals. The Conference reaffirms its commitment to the provisions concerning the Stability and Growth Pact as the framework for the coordination of budgetary policies in the Member States. The Conference confirms that a rule-based system is the best guarantee for commitments to be enforced and for all Member States to be treated equally. Within this framework, the Conference also reaffirms its commitment to the goals of the Lisbon Strategy: job creation, structural reforms, and social cohesion. The Union aims at achieving balanced economic growth and price stability. Economic and budgetary policies thus need to set the right priorities towards economic reforms, innovation, competitiveness and strengthening of private investment and consumption in phases of weak economic growth. This should be reflected in the orientations of budgetary decisions at the national and Union level in particular through restructuring of public revenue and expenditure while respecting budgetary discipline in accordance with the Treaties and the Stability and Growth Pact. Budgetary and economic challenges facing the Member States should use periods of economic recovery actively to consolidate public finances and improve their budgetary positions. The objective is to gradually achieve a budgetary surplus in good times which creates the necessary room to accommodate economic downturns and thus contribute to the long-term sustainability of public finances. The Member States with regard to strengthening and clarifying the implementation of the Stability and Growth Pact. The Member States will take all necessary measures to raise the growth potential of their economic policy coordination on Article 156 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Conference confirms that the policies described in Article 156 fall essentially within the competence of the Member States. Measures to provide encouragement and promote coordination to be taken at Union level in accordance with this Article shall be of a complementary nature. They shall serve to strengthen cooperation between Member States and not to harmonise national systems. The guarantees and practices existing in each Member State as regards the responsibility of the social matters. 32. Declaration on Article 168(4)(c) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Conference declares that the measures to be adopted pursuant to Article 168(4)(c) must meet common safety where national standards of quality and safety where national standards affecting the internal market would otherwise prevent a high level of human health protection being achieved. 33. Declaration on Article 174 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Conference considers that the reference in Article 174 to island regions can include island States in their entirety, subject to the necessary criteria being met. 34. Declaration on Article 179 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Conference agrees that the Union's action in the area of research and technological development will pay due respect to the fundamental orientations and choices of the research policies of the Rember States. 35. Declaration on Article 194 does not affect the right of the Member States to take the necessary measures to ensure their energy supply under the conditions provided for in Article 347. 36. Declaration on Article 218 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union concerning the negotiation and conclude agreements with third countries or international organisations in the areas covered by Chapters 3, 4 and 5 of Title V of Part Three in so far as such agreements comply with Union law. 37. Declaration on Article 222 of the Treaty on the European Union Without prejudice to the measures adopted by the Union to comply with its solidarity obligation towards a Member State which is the object of a terrorist attack or the victim of natural or man-made disaster, none of the provisions of Article 222 is intended to affect the right of another Member State. 38. Declaration on Article 252 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union regarding the number of Advocates-General in the Court of Justice The Conference declares that if, in accordance with Article 252, first paragraph, of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, the Council will, acting unanimously, agree on such an increase. In that case, the Conference agrees that Poland will, as is already the case for Germany, France, Italy, Spain and the United Kingdom, have a permanent Advocates-General and no longer take part in the rotation system will involve the rotation of five Advocates-General and no longer take part in the rotation system will involve the rotation system will involve the rotation of five Advocates-General and no longer take part in the rotation system will involve the rotation system will involve the rotation of five Advocates-General and no longer take part in the rotation system will involve the rotation system will involve the rotation system will involve the rotation of five Advocates-General and no longer take part the European Union The Conference takes note of the Commission's intention to continue to consult experts appointed by the Member States in the preparation on Article 329 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Conference declares that Member States may indicate, when they make a request to establish enhanced cooperation, if they intend already at that stage to make use of Article 333 providing for the extension of qualified majority voting or to have recourse to the ordinary legislative procedure. 41. Declaration on Article 352 of the Treaty on the European Union The Conference declares that the reference in Article 352(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union to objectives of the Union refers to the objectives as set out in Article 3(2) and (3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. It is therefore excluded that an action based on Article 352 of the Treaty on the European Union, the Conference notes that in accordance with Article 31(1) of the Treaty on European Union, legislative acts may not be adopted in the area of the Common Foreign and Security Policy. 42. Declaration on Article 352 of the European Union, being an integral part of an institutional system based on the principle of conferred powers, cannot serve as a basis for widening the scope of Union powers beyond the general framework created by the provisions of the Treaties as a whole and, in particular, by those that define the tasks and the activities of the Union. In any event, this Article cannot be used as a basis for the adoption of provisions whose effect would, in substance, be to amend the Treaties without following the procedure which they provide for that purpose. 43. Declaration on Article 355(6), will take a decision leading to the European Union The High Contracting Parties agree that the European Council, pursuant to Article 355(6), will take a decision leading to the modification of the status of Mayotte with regard to the Union in order to make this territory an outermost region within the meaning of Article 355(1) and Article 349, when the French authorities notify the European Council and the Commission that the evolution currently under way in the internal status of the internal status of the Schengen acquis integrated into the framework of the European Union The Conference notes that where a Member State has made a notification under Article 5(2) of the Protocol on the Schengen acquis integrated into the framework of the European Union that it does not wish to take part in a proposal or initiative, that notification may be withdrawn at any moment before the adoption of the measure building upon the Schengen acquis. 45. Declaration on Article 5(2) of the Protocol on the Schengen acquis integrated into the framework of the European Union The Conference declares that whenever the United Kingdom or Ireland indicates to the Council its intention not to participate in a measure building upon a part of the Schengen acquis in which it participates, the Council will have a full discussion on the possible implications of the non-participation of that Member State in that measure. The discussion concerning the relationship between the proposal and the Schengen acquis. 46. Declaration on Article 5(3) of the Protocol on the Schengen acquis integrated into the framework of the European Union The Conference recalls that if the Council does not take a decision after a first substantive re-examination by the Council within the deadline of 4 months. 47. Declaration on Article 5(3), (4) and (5) of the Protocol on the Schengen acquis integrated into the framework of the European Union The Conference notes that the conditions to be determined in the framework of the European Union may determine that the Member State concerned shall bear the direct financial consequences, if any, necessarily and unavoidably incurred as a result of the cessation of its participation in some or all of the acquis referred to in any decision of Denmark The Conference notes that with respect to legal acts to be adopted by the Council acting alone or jointly with the European Parliament and containing provisions applicable to Denmark as well as provisions not applicable to Denmark declares that it will not use its voting right to prevent the adoption of the provisions which are not applicable to Denmark. Furthermore, the Conference notes that on the basis of the Declaration by the Conference on Article 222, Denmark declares that Danish participation in actions or legal acts pursuant to Article 222 will take place in accordance with Part I and Part I of the Protocol on the position of Denmark. 49. Declaration concerning Italy The Conference notes that the Protocol on Italy annexed in 1957 to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community, as amended upon adoption of the Treaty on European Union, stated that: "THE HIGH CONTRACTING PARTIES, DESIRING to settle certain particular problems relating to Italy, HAVE AGREED UPON the following provisions, which shall be annexed to this Treaty: THE MEMBER STATES OF THE COMMUNITY TAKE NOTE of the fact that the Italian Government is carrying out a ten-year programme of economic expansion designed to rectify the disequilibria in the structure of the Italian islands and by creating new jobs in order to eliminate unemployment; RECALL that the principles and objectives of this programme of the Italian Government have been considered and approved by organisations for international cooperation of which the Member States are members; RECOGNISE that it is in their common interest that the objectives of the Italian programme should be attained; AGREE, in order to facilitate the accomplishment of this task by the Italian Government, to recommend to the institutions of the Community that they should employ all the methods and procedures provided in this Treaty, take account of the sustained effort to be made by the Italian economy in the coming years and of the desirability of avoiding dangerous stresses in particular within the balance of payments or the level of employment, which might jeopardise the application of this Treaty in Italy; RECOGNISE that in the event of Articles 109 H and 109 I being applied it will be necessary to take care that any measures required of the Italian Government do not prejudice the completion of its programme for economic expansion and for raising the standard of living of the population.". 50. Declaration concerning Article 10 of the Protocol on transitional provisions The Conference invites the European Parliament, the Council and the Commission, within their respective powers, to seek to adopt, in appropriate cases and as far as possible within the five-year period referred to in Article 10(3) of the Protocol on transitional provisions, legal acts amending or replacing the acts referred to in Article 10(1) of that Protocol. C. DECLARATIONS BY MEMBER STATES 51. Declaration by the Kingdom of Belgium on national Parliaments Belgium wishes to make clear that in accordance with its constitutional law, not only the Chamber of Representatives and Senate of the Federal Parliament but also the parliament but also the parliamentary system or chambers of the national Parliament. 52. Declaration by the Kingdom of Belgium, the Republic of Bulgaria, the Federal Republic of Lithuania, the Republic of Spain, the Republic of Sovenia and the Slovak Republic on the symbols of the European Union Belgium, Bulgaria, Germany, Greece, Spain, Italy, Cyprus, Lithuania, Luxemburg, Hungary, Malta, Austria, Portugal, Romania, Slovenia and the Slovak Republic declare that the flag with a circle of twelve golden stars on a blue background, the anthem based on the "Ode to Joy" from the Ninth Symphony by Ludwig van Beethoven, the motto "United in diversity", the euro as the currency of the European Union and Europe Day on 9 May will for them continue as symbols to express the sense of community of the European Union and their allegiance to it. 53. Declaration by the Czech Republic on the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union 1. The Czech Republic recalls that the provisions of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union are addressed to the institutions and bodies of the European Union with due regard for the principle of subsidiarity and division of competences between the European Union and its Member States, as reaffirmed in Declaration (No 18) in relation to the delimitation of competences. The Czech Republic stresses that its provisions are addressed to the Member States only when they are implementing Union law, and not when they are adopting and implementing Union law. 2. The Czech Republic also emphasises that the Charter does not extend the field of application of Union law. 3. The Czech Republic also emphasises that the Charter does not extend the field of application of Union law. 4. The Czech Republic also emphasises that the Charter does not extend the field of application of Union law. 4. The Czech Republic also emphasises that the Charter does not extend the field of application of Union law. diminish the field of application of national law and does not restrain any current powers of the national authorities in this field. 3. The Czech Republic stresses that, in so far as the Charter recognises fundamental rights and principles are to be interpreted in harmony with those traditions. 4. The Czech Republic further stresses that nothing in the Charter may be interpreted as restricting or adversely affecting human rights and fundamental freedoms as recognised, in their respective field of application, by Union law and by international agreements to which the Union or all the Member States are party, including the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, and by the Member States' Constitutions. 54. Declaration by the Federal Republic of Austria and Sweden note that the core provisions of the Treaty establishing the European Atomic Energy Community have not been substantially amended since its entry into force and need to be brought up to date. They therefore support the idea of a Conference of the Representatives of the Representati Gibraltar as a European territory for whose external relations a Member State is responsible. This shall not imply changes in the respective position of the United Kingdom and Ireland in respect of the area of freedom, security and justice Ireland affirms its commitment to the Union as an area of freedom, security and justice respecting fundamental rights and the different legal systems and traditions of the Member States within which citizens are provided with a high level of safety. Accordingly, Ireland declares its firm intention to exercise its right under Article 3 of the Protocol on the position of the United Kingdom and Ireland in respect of the area of freedom, security and justice to take part in the adoption of measures pursuant to Title V of Part Three of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union to the maximum possible extent in measures in the field of police cooperation. Furthermore, Ireland recalls that in accordance with Article 8 of the Protocol it may notify the Council in writing that it no longer wishes to be covered by the terms of the Protocol. Ireland intends to review the operation of these arrangements within three years of the entry into force of the Treaty of Lisbon. 57. Declaration by the Italian Republic on the composition of these arrangements within three years of the entry into force of the Treaty of Lisbon. 57. Declaration by the Italian Republic on the composition of these arrangements within three years of the entry into force of the Treaty of Lisbon. 57. Declaration by the Italian Republic on the composition of these arrangements within three years of the entry into force of the Treaty of Lisbon. Treaty on European Union, the European Parliament is to be composed of representatives of the Union's citizens; this representation is to be degressively proportional. Italy likewise notes that on the basis of Article 9 of the Treaty on European Union, every national of a Member State is a citizen of the Union. Italy therefore considers that, without prejudice to the decision on the 2009-2014 legislative period, any decision adopted by the European Parliament, must abide by the principles laid down out in the first subparagraph of Article 14. 58. Declaration by the Republic of Latvia, the Republic of Hungary and the Republic of Malta on the spelling of the name of the single currency in the Treaties as displayed on the banknotes and on the coins, Latvia, Hungary and Malta declare that the spelling of the name of the name of the single currency, including its derivatives as applied throughout the Latvian, Hungarian and Maltese text of the Treaties, has no effect on the existing rules of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Kingdom of the Netherlands will agree to a decision as referred to in the second subparagraph of Article 312(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union once a revision of the decision referred to in the third paragraph of Article 311 of that Treaty has provided the Netherlands with a satisfactory solution for its excessive negative net payment position vis-à-vis the Union budget. 60. Declaration by the Kingdom of the Netherlands on Article 355 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Kingdom of the Netherlands Antilles and/or Aruba with regard to the Union, will be submitted only on the basis of a decision taken in conformity with the Charter for the Kingdom of the Netherlands. 61. Declaration by the Republic of Poland on the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union The Charter does not affect in any way the right of Member States to legislate in the sphere of public morality, family law, as well as the protection of human dignity and respect for human physical and moral integrity. 62. Declaration by the Republic of Poland concerning the Protocol on the application of the European Union in relation to Poland and the United Kingdom Poland declares that, having regard to the tradition of social and labour rights, it fully respects social and labour rights, as established by European Union law, and in particular those reaffirmed in Title IV of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union. 63. Declaration by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland on the definition of the term "nationals" In respect of the Treaties and the Treaty establishing the European Atomic Energy Community, and in any of the acts deriving from those Treaties or continued in force by those Treaties, the United Kingdom reiterates the Declaration it made on 31 December 1982 on the definition of the term "nationals" with the exception that the reference to "British Dependent Territories Citizens" shall be read as meaning "British overseas territories Citizens". 64. Declaration by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland on the franchise for elections to the European Parliament The United Kingdom notes that Article 14 of the Treaty on European Union and other provisions of the Treaty on European Union and other provisions to the European Parliament. 65. Declaration by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland on Article 75 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The United Kingdom fully supports robust action with regard to adopting financial sanctions designed to prevent and combat terrorism and related activities. Therefore, the United Kingdom declares that it intends to exercise its right under Article 3 of the Protocol on the position of the United Kingdom declares that it intends to exercise its right under freedom, security and justice to take part in the adoption of all proposals made under Article 75 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. [1] "It follows (...) that the law stemming from the treaty, an independent source of law, could not, because of its special and original nature, be overridden by domestic legal provisions, however framed, without being deprived of its character as Community law and without the legal basis of the Community itself being called into question."
